

UNESCO CULTURAL AMBASSADORS

Slovak student's reviews from mobility in Karabük:

Karolína:

Several days have passed since I've come from Erasmus in Turkey but mentally I'm still there. It's not easy to return back to reality after days which felt like a dream. It was a week to remember - experiencing new cultures, breaking stereotypes which were rooted inside me, making friendships, exploring the historical and cultural heritage and eating big amounts of food (to be exact - kebab). Choosing the best moment is impossible. Majestic mosques, sea and crowded streets of Istanbul left me speechless. I will never forget our adventure on motorbikes, trip with my host family and everyday partying. We were welcomed with hospitality, generosity and big hearts of locals. I will be forever grateful for this unforgettable opportunity thanks to which I've had one of the best weeks of my life.

Slovak student's reviews from mobility in Guimaraes:

Sára:

The exchange program, UNESCO Culture Ambassadors in Turkey, was the best trip I ever experienced thanks to school. Not only did I learn a lot about culture, traditions, and religion there, but I also made quite a few good friends. I enjoy cooking, and I had the chance to try and learn about their traditional dishes. The family where I stayed explained every recipe I asked them about. Even though the family didn't speak English, we had amazing conversations about everything. The program was perfect; we saw breathtaking places in Istanbul; had the most adventurous ride on a quad bike; danced almost every day to the Turkish song, and spent the day on the beach. We visited their school and also felt the atmosphere of the town where they live.

A woman in a black long-sleeved top and black trousers stands on the left side of the room, presenting to the audience. She is wearing white sneakers and a necklace.

Wooden churches

- In 2008, eight historic wooden churches located in the northeast of Slovakia were inscribed on the UNESCO list. They received the highest award that can be obtained. The oldest churches date from the 16th century and some still hold services
- Wooden churches in the following towns and villages have been included in the UNESCO list
- Greek Catholic churches
 - Ruska Bystra
 - Ladomirova
 - Bodružal
- Roman Catholic churches
 - Turdókin
 - Hervátov
- Evangelical churches
 - Kežmarok
 - Hronec
 - Leštiny

Two women are seated at a wooden table in the foreground, looking towards the presentation. One woman is wearing a black top with a floral pattern, and the other is wearing a black top over a light green turtleneck. A purple smartphone is on the table in front of them.

